

MITCHELL MORLEY

Director

Mitchell is a Director of InConsult and has over 25 years' experience in the NSW public sector covering internal audit, corporate governance, risk management, OH&S, records management, privacy management, insurance arrangements and administrative services.

Mitchell was chair of the NSW Local Government Governance Network, a Board member of Westpool and has held senior management positions in a number of NSW councils including Liverpool Council, Marrickville Council, Hornsby Council and Fairfield Council.

Mitchell leads InConsult's service delivery on all major projects to ensure project success. Mitchell's leadership and client focus resulted in Hunters Hill Council winning a prestigious risk management award in 2011.

Mitchell writes regularly for Council Manager Magazine on current and emerging risk, governance and audit issues.

Mitchell has a long history of involvement with local sporting organisations as a player, coach and committee member.

Areas of Expertise

- Internal Audit
- Strategic audit planning
- Enterprise risk management
- Strategic risk management
- Risk appetite
- Risk management maturity
- Corporate Governance
- Privacy and Access to Government Information
- Protected Disclosure
- Code of Conduct
- Service delivery business review
- Business continuity planning

Industry Experience

- Local Government
- State Government
- General Insurance
- Not for Profit

Qualifications, Education & Memberships

- B.Ec (Sydney)
- Member – Institute of Internal Auditors
- Risk Management Institution of Australasia
- Member - Local Govt. Managers Australia (LGMA)
- Local Government Governance Network

